FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ECIA Mourns Passing of Industry Titan, Raymond J. Hall

The Electronics Representatives Association (ERA) has announced that its retired executive vice president and CEO, Raymond J. Hall, passed away on Nov. 13 in Findlay, Ohio. Ray was a good friend and supporter of NEDA, the predecessor to ECIA. He was instrumental in facilitating many joint programs between ERA and NEDA. The association presented Ray with the Gail S. Carter award in 2004 – its highest honor.

ECIA expresses its deepest sympathies to Mr. Hall's family. He is survived by his wife of 32 years, Patricia, his daughters, Kathy Green and Tracey Stewart, his son, Christopher Kosch, his brother, Robert, and eight grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his son, Raymond J. Hall, Jr.

In keeping with Mr. Hall's love of springtime, and especially St. Patrick's Day, a memorial service will be held in the spring of 2019. Memorial donations can be directed to the City Mission of Findlay, 510 W. Main Cross St., Findlay, OH 45840.

About ECIA

The Electronic Components Industry Association (ECIA) is made up of the leading electronic component manufacturers, their manufacturer representatives and authorized distributors. ECIA members share a common goal of promoting and improving the business environment for the authorized sale of electronic components to the end customer. Comprising a broad array of leaders and professionals representing all phases of the electronics components supply chain, ECIA is where business optimization, product authentication and industry advocacy come together. ECIA members develop industry guidelines and technical standards, as well as generate critical business intelligence. For more information, visit www.ecianow.org or call 678-393-9990.
