Eight New Members Join ECIA

Atlanta, GA - ECIA is pleased to welcome the following eight companies to its roster of prominent electronic component distributors, suppliers and manufacturers' reps.

From the component manufacturer sector, Neutrik USA, Inc., Henkel Electronic Materials, Contrinex USA and Concord Electronics have joined the organization recently.

From the distributor community, ECIA welcomes NEP Electronics and Nasco Aerospace & Electronics.

G.L. Smith Associates and Astron Electronics, both manufacturers' rep companies, have also joined the organization.

"ECIA continues to build its community of committed industry leaders who see the benefits of joining forces and tackling industry issues together," commented Debbie Conyers, ECIA vice president of member engagement. "We look forward to working with these dedicated companies to address common challenges and bring efficiencies to the component supply chain."

About ECIA

The Electronic Components Industry Association (ECIA) is made up of the leading electronic component manufacturers, their manufacturer representatives and authorized distributors. ECIA members share a common goal of promoting and improving the business environment for the authorized sale of electronic components to the end customer. Comprised of a broad array of leaders and professionals representing all phases of the electronics components supply chain, ECIA is where business optimization, product authentication and industry advocacy come together. ECIA members develop industry guidelines and technical standards, as well as generate critical business intelligence. For more information, visit www.ecianow.org or call 678-393-9990.
