

TPC Semi Industry Trends Survey - October Results

The October industry survey shows an uptick in the demand outlook for the third quarter, while the fourth quarter demand seems to be down slightly. It appears that the industry is at the bottom of the cycle and showing signs of recovery heading into CY20. Click here to review the complete survey results.

Technology Partners Consulting, (TPC) provides independent third party consulting to electronics suppliers and financial services firms. TPC provides ECIA with a monthly report on a market trends survey administered by Glenn Hitchcock, TPC founder and president. The report provides results from a survey sent to 20,000 electronic industry professionals across the globe to assess their expectations for order activity and inventory levels.

ECIA Launches Podcast Series

ECIA launched a new way to connect to the industry. "The Channel Channel" podcast is dedicated to fascinating and wide-ranging discussions of topics about the Authorized Channel for Electronic Components. Subscribers can listen to various industry leaders discuss a new topic every other week.

Episode One features an interview with ECIA Board Chair, Jeff Thomson, VP of Global Channel Sales for ON Semiconductor. Available on iTunes, Google Play, Spotify, or through the ECIAnow.org website, these 20-minute episodes will be released every other week. Recent ECIA North Star Award honoree Dave Doherty, Digi-Key Electronics, is featured in Episode Two.

"There's so much to talk about these days, with all the change and disruption that is occurring in the global channel for authorized components," explained Bill Bradford, ECIA's President, and host of the new podcast channel. "Our podcast agenda keeps those discussions moving forward and provides a way for the industry to stay current on fast-moving topics." These discussions are open to all those interested in the electronics industry. Subscribe to The Channel Channel through www.ecianow.org/podcasts.
